OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 14 March 1978

1. [REDACTED] LIAISON I called Larry Sulc, on the staff of the House International Relations Subcommittee on International Organizations, and told him that each day that passes puts us more into a bind with respect to the information passed to us concerning the acquisition by the Subcommittee staff of a copy of a CIA intelligence report from some place other than the Agency. He asked that we still not raise the matter.

✓ 2. [REDACTED] EMPLOYMENT REQUEST Per her request, I sent to Judy Holcomb, in the office of Representative Edward J. Derwinski (R., Ill.), a professional Agency brochure and application for employment for one of their constituents.

STAT

✓ 3. [REDACTED] LIAISON Rita Argenta, on the staff of the House Armed Services Committee, called to say the Committee wanted to have the 26 January 1978 transcript of testimony by the Director before the Committee. It was sent by courier later in the day. I spoke with Bill Hogan, of the Committee, and he indicated that the Committee may wish to have permanent retention of the transcript but that this question was not fully resolved at this point in time.

STAT

✓ 4. [REDACTED] LIAISON Per the request of Angie Morris, on the staff of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, sent some information on the military supply levels in the Middle East to her.

STAT

5. [REDACTED] LIAISON Called Bobbi Kish, on the staff of Senator Lawton Chiles (D., Fla.) and made arrangements for Jim Lilley, National Intelligence Officer for China, to brief the Senator on the People's Republic of China on 20 March at 3:30 p.m. in the Senator's office. The Senator is traveling there and had expressed an interest in a briefing. [REDACTED] NFAC/CSS, has been advised.

10. [REDACTED] LIAISON Pam Smith, CRS/Library of Congress, called asking if it was alright to send a copy of our publication entitled "World Steel Market Continued Trouble Ahead" to a requestor. She said the copy she has is marked "For Official Use Only." I told her I was quite certain the publication no longer contained that caveat and after checking with [REDACTED] NFAC/CSS, office, I told Ms. Smith that indeed the caveat had been removed and I said I would send her another copy. She thanked me for this information.
